Valentin : Hello everybody, welcome on our Program

Loïc : hello

Fab : hello

Valentin : So we have on my left, fabrice, a journalist from Daily News and on my right Loic an other journalist from NBC.

Today, we are going to talk about the new movie the hobbits.

Let's look at a first part of the trailer of this movie.

DIFFUSION DE LA PREMIERE PARTIE DU TRAILER !!! (environ 20 secondes)

Valentin : Loic what do you think about this trailer ?

Loic : i think that, this trailer is promising. I'm a big fan of the trilogie Lord of the ring, I'm expecting a lot from this new adaptation of tolkien and this short extract really hipe me

Valentin : ok that a nice point of view, and you fabrice what do you think about it ?

Fabrice : I don't agree with my colleagues, I'm not a fan of the universe of Lord of the ring. Although the movie looks pretty interesting, I'm not captivated by this extract.

Valentin : i was told that the control has a probleme with the camera (GROS ECRAN NOIR), so let's lunch the further of the trailer (ne veux rien dire)

DIFFUSION DE LA DEUXIEME PARTIE DU TRAILER !!!

Valentin : We just fixed the problem with the camera, sorry for the desgarement

The movie annouces a two million dollars recipe , twice more than Star wars for example, fabrice what do you think of this turnover?

Fabrice : I don't believe that the turnover is exorbitant, it's the least estimation of all Lord of the ring

Loic : that's right, it's not the best of the 10 last year but it's the of this years. If the budget is so consequent, it's is in big part because of the casting who count not less than fortheen main character as the great. Stephen Hunter in the roles of Bombur, the dwarf the most captivating in the history of the cinema. Without talking about the other excellents actors.

Fabrice : I absolutely do not agree with you, sure their are many actors but they don't have a good standing. I really think that most part of the budget is allocated to the post production and I don't find the result really fine.

Valentin : effectively, we know filming was ince 11 months, the post production takes almost one years, provocating a long expectation for fans who wait eagerly that movie, fans like you loic if i understood.

Loic : yes I am, I'm waiting anxiously since a long time, it's true that the post production is longer than the concurent movies but it's because of the use of special effects that

Fabrice : special effects are made for spectators to have their eyes full, but with that movie, i don't think spectators will have their eyes full because special effects seems very bad. The soundtrack is good, not fantastic but it-

Valentin : yes talking about the soundtrack, known that peter Jackson call the popular Christophe mae for a perfect illustrate of the movie. We are going to leave you on the last part of the trailer, i thank you two for coming here and participate to the debate .

Loic : thank you for inviting us to debate on that wonderful movie.

Fabrice : thank's for the invitation and i hope the debate of next week will be on a better movie wich interrest me more.

Valentin : that program could be found on our website, you next week for a other movie, good week everyone
